

The Eviction Center

A Registered & Bonded Unlawful Detainer Assistant Company

Refund Policy:

The Eviction Center will only process refund requests under the following criteria's:

- If our client requests a refund for prepaid fees that were not actually used by The Eviction Center.
- If our client is entitled to a refund for prepaid court fees not used, but has other balances owing due to other services being performed by The Eviction Center, then the amount of the refund will be credited first towards the other balances owing. A refund would be issued if a balance remains after the credits were applied to the client's other account balances.

Refunds will be in the form of a check only and no refunds or credits will be issued after 60 days of the initial request for services. The refund policy is provided by The Eviction Center at the time a client requests services AND a copy is also posted in our office locations.

By signing below, The Eviction Center client acknowledges receiving a copy of the "Refund Policy".
